

SUBSECTION (e). Amend Section four hundred and six of the Revenue Act by adding a new subsection, to immediately follow Subsection (s), which shall be known as Subsection (t) to read as follows:

(t) Sales of repair parts and accessories for motor vehicles and airplanes, and lubricants and other articles used in servicing motor vehicles and airplanes, when made to the owner and operator of fleets of as many as five or more motor vehicles or airplanes, shall be classified as wholesale sales, and therefore only subject to the wholesale rate of tax.

SUBSECTION (f). This section shall be effective from and after the ratification of this Act.

SEC. 6. Amendments to the Beverage Control Act, Article VI, Schedule F.

Amending Schedule F.

SUBSECTION (a). Amend Article VI, Schedule F, by inserting immediately after Section five hundred and six a new section to be designated Section five hundred and six (a), which shall read as follows:

SEC. 506 (a). Prohibition Against Exclusive Outlets. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation engaged in business under this article as a manufacturer, or wholesaler, or bottler of wine or malt beverages directly or indirectly or through an affiliate:

Prohibiting exclusive outlets.

1. To require, by agreement or otherwise, that any retailer engaged in the sale of wine or malt beverages, purchase any such products from such person, firm or corporation to the exclusion in whole or in part of wine or malt beverages sold or offered for sale by other persons, firms or corporations in North Carolina, if the direct effect of such requirement is to prevent, deter, hinder, or restrict other persons, firms or corporations in North Carolina from selling or offering for sale any such products to such retailer; or

2. To induce through any of the following means any retailer, engaged in the sale of wine or malt beverages, to purchase any such products from such person, firm or corporation to the exclusion in whole or in part of wine or malt beverages sold or offered for sale by other persons, firms, or corporations in North Carolina, if the direct effect of such inducement is to prevent, deter, hinder or restrict other persons, firms or corporations in North Carolina from selling or offering for sale any such products to such retailer: (1) by acquiring any interest in real or personal property owned, occupied, or used by the retailer in the conduct of his business; (2) by furnishing, giving free goods or deals, renting, lending, or selling to the retailer, any equipment, fixtures, signs, supplies, money, services, or other things
